SAMPLE COMMITTEE GOALS:

1. By September 1st: Evaluate options for more proactive communications related to the Finance/Facilities work on the CIP as well as any/all anticipated warrant articles. Provide a recommendation to the full School Board for communication methods, timing, and budget
2. September through December: Meet with the Finance/Facilities Committee as they prepare to present to the Budget Committee. Assist with developing talking points and slide presentations for all planned communications. Present the final communications strategy to the full School Board at the last meeting in December and collect their approval.
3. January: Present detail of all warrant articles and key elements of the CIP at the annual district budget hearing
4. January through March: Execute the approved communications plan throughout the district

SAMPLE CIP GOAL FOR FULL BOARD:

1. By January 1st, create a district-wide communications plan to promote all warrant articles and their related CIP plans or labor contracts. Deliver a full presentation at the annual budget hearing in January, and execute the remainder of the plan in the weeks leading to the district vote.
