8:30 PM RSA 91-A:3 Student Issue:

D. Hodgdon explained he had contacted an attorney regarding the situation in which the parents live in Jaffrey and the child attends Troy Elementary. The Board had asked for a letter of occupancy by the parents by June 2012 for their property in Troy. D. Hodgdon explained there are two options. The attorney has written a contract in which the Board can asked for the tuition upfront and if there is occupancy the funds would be returned. The other option is a written contract and if there is no letter of occupancy by June 2012 the parents will be expected to pay the tuition. The Board agreed on the contract in which the parents will pay in June 2012 only if there is no letter of occupancy. The attorney recommended the alternative.
