

Mr. Naso Instructional Technology list

1. Microsoft Publisher
 - o Webpage
 - o Brochure
 - o Posters
2. Photostory – Picture Slide Show with music or audio Recording
3. Windows Movie Maker – Picture Slide show with music and Movie creator
4. Pivot Stick Figure Animation – Create animation movies with stick figure shapes
5. Kodu Game lab – Create video games
6. Edmodo – post assignments make quizzes/ Students can turn in assignments
7. Class Dojo – google Chrome App that you can give your students points and track their behavior
8. Glogster – Interactive Poster maker
9. Google Drive – Access Powerpoint, Excel, Word
10. Quizlet – Website for Flash Card creator/ Game and Quiz maker
11. Google Sketchup – Make 3D Models
12. Study Stacks – Website for vocabulary/ Game
13. Easiteach Tablet – Interact with your presentation all around the room
14. Beyond Question Clickers – have parts of your presentation be interactive with students
15. Prezi – Create a different flow to your powerpoints
16. Web games- Search for some new games and activities online
17. Webquests- Find a website or a series of websites that students can answer questions from and more
18. Audacity – Students can record themselves and create songs and audio files
19. Garage Band – Students can record themselves and create songs and audio files
20. Wordle- see what words you use the most in cool designs
21. Animated Gif maker – Take a series of pictures and string them together to make an animated Gif
22. Google Chrome Apps – tons of Free apps you can add to your google chrome webpage from the webstore
23. Great Blogs to Follow
 - o www.freetech4teachers.com
 - o <http://Proteacher.net>
24. Pinterest – search and “pin” interesting lesson ideas/demos to your digital bulletin board
25. Animoto – turn pictures into animated slideshow to music by uploading to site (free)
26. Vistaprint – source for printed materials (posters, banners, etc.); can get codes for free products
27. Teachers Pay Teachers – download lessons from other teachers (paid/free); can start your own account to sell your own original materials
28. Dropbox – cloud storage accessible from anywhere; app also available for tablets
29. Remind101 – service that allows teachers to send mass text/email to students/parents without knowing their direct information; students/parents must sign up to receive messages (free)
30. Screenr.com – record your instructions on a screencast, then link to your webpage so kids and parents can revisit at any time (great for teaching how to use technology, etc.)
31. GradeCam – software that allows you to turn any web camera into a scantron that will grade and do item analysis of multiple choice assessments
32. Beneficial Apps: (free unless otherwise noted)
 - o Quizlet (can’t take test on this)
 - o Edmodo
 - o Dropbox

- Power Teacher Mobile (take attendance, etc. on the ipad)
- 2Screens (allows you to interact with projector like a smartboard; cost is $4.99)
- Penultimate (amazing interactive note pad with screen shot functions)
- Bone Scan Bob (bone id game; cost is $0.99)
- Muscle Scan Mike (muscle id game; cost is $0.99)
- NASA App HD
- The Weather Channel
- Mighty Microbes (SEM images of microbes)
- 3D Cell Simulation (virtual cell tour; 3D)
- HudsonAlpha iCell (animated interactive cell tour; bacteria, plant & animal cells)
- The Rock Cycle
- The Water Cycle
- Kid Science: Physics Experiments
- Kid Science: Chemistry Experiments
- Kid Science: Worm Dissection
- K12 Periodic Table of Elements
- Go SkyWatch Planetarium (point at night sky to id stars, planets, etc.)
- Exoplanet (excellent navigation from Earth to distant reaches of the universe; quickly updated with new exoplanet discoveries)